

EDUCATION FOR RECONCILIATION: ASSEMBLING STRENGTH

An Online Learning Opportunity You Don't Want to Miss!

Designed for all members of school communities, the Education for Reconciliation eCourse is intended to strengthen 'Foundational Knowledge' in schools as it pertains to Alberta's Indigenous Peoples.

Topics for exploration in this new eLearning course include Alberta's diverse First Nations, Métis and Inuit cultures and traditions, values, and attitudes, and the historical and contemporary realities of Alberta's Indigenous Peoples.

In this self-paced eLearning opportunity, moderated by Donna Ross, participants will have the ability to:

- deepen their awareness of the rich culture and history of First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples in Alberta;
- broaden their understanding of the legacy of residential schools, treaty education, and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action for Education; and
- participate with others in on-line discussions and activities to enrich their learning experience.

Education for Reconciliation: Assembling Strength is accessible 24/7 to accommodate the busy schedules of those wishing to participate.

Registration is Easy!

Decide which session works best for you. Click the link below and enter your information. Join the eCourse at ANY time during the session window. It's that simple . . . and it's free!

eCourse Session	Dates	Registration Link
Fall	October 18, 2017 - December 20, 2017	Education for Reconciliation FALL eCourse
Winter	January 15, 2018 – March 15, 2018	Education for Reconciliation WINTER eCourse
Spring	April 3, 2018 – June 3, 2018	Education for Reconciliation SPRING eCourse

Need help with your registration? Contact Christina Somerville at register@crcpd.ab.ca

This dynamic learning opportunity is being offered through a grant from Alberta Education.