NEW RESOURCES: TALKING WITH STUDENTS ABOUT RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS

CLASSROOM RESOURCES

Visit <https://newswestteacher.ca/online-lesson-and-classroom-teaching-tools/> to access these and many other FREE teaching resources.

Elder Wilson Bearhead shares answers to questions asked by students in the province of Alberta about Residential Schools in two new videos for classroom use. There are videos for Gr. K-6 students and for Gr. 7-12 students.

Enter the Student Infographic Poster Contest! Your students will learn about the history and legacy of Residential Schools and you may win prizes for your classroom!

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

APFDC continues to create Professional Learning PD Playlists for personal or staff team use to support your understanding of the history and legacy of residential schools. The newest chapter in the series is now available. In this chapter, second generation survivors Charlene Noskey and James Babcock share their testimonial with professional learning activities to support you in seeking truth, advancing reconciliation, and allyship.
